

$2,500

Men of League

The Men of League Foundation provides financial and emotional support to individuals and families in need from within the local Rugby League community.

Cessnock Leagues Club has provided $2,500 to the organisation to help these people get through tough times and improve their quality of life.

Men of League provides support to individuals and families in need of assistance including those suffering debilitating illness, coping with the illness of a child or an immediate family members, a disability, bereavement or financial hardship.

The club, with its strong links to Rugby League is proud to be supporting this charity.
