

$5,000

The Top Blokes Foundation

A $5,000 allocation by Cessnock Leagues Club under its Community Grants program will go towards supporting a school based The Top Blokes Foundation.

The program will be undertaken at Mount View and Maitland High Schools. Top Blokes is a six-month social education and mentoring program to support males aged 14 to 17 years.

With qualified youth workers will delivering weekly workshops, young males are supported to build skills in mental health and well-being, social connections and reduced anti-social behaviour. It will deliver 3 x 6 month mentoring programs to 36 young males at the schools through a six-month transformational journey through the Top Blokes experience.
